PUBLIC LIBRARY
OF NAHANT.

1872.

BOSTON:
PRESS OF ROCKWELL & CHURCHILL,
122 WASHINGTON STREET.
1872.

Rules and Regulations of the Nahant Public Library.

ART. 1. The Library shall be open for the delivery of books, from 3 to 5, and from 7 to 9 P. M., on Saturday.

ART. 2. Every inhabitant of the town of Nahant, over 16 years old, shall be entitled to the use of the Library, in accordance with the regulations. Persons under that age may be admitted upon guaranty, after subscribing a promise to obey the rules, or in any other way that may be satisfactory to the Librarian.

ART. 3. Any person taking books from the Library may be required to make a deposit in proportion to their value.

ART. 4. No person shall be allowed more than one volume at a time.

ART. 5. All books are to be returned within 7 days from the date of delivery, under the penalty of 2 cents per day for all delay. The Board or Committee on the Library may, by due notice affixed to the volume, require new books to be returned within a shorter time.

ART. 6. Any book retained two weeks beyond the time prescribed by these regulations shall be sent for by the Librarian, and the messenger's fee be charged.

ART. 7. Any book may be renewed once to the same person, but not more than once, until it shall have remained in the Library one full Library-day.

ART. 8. All injuries to books beyond reasonable wear and all losses shall be made good to the satisfaction of the Committee on the Library by the person to whom the book is charged. Any book not returned within one week after it has been sent for by the Librarian, shall be regarded as lost. If the volume lost or injured forms part of a set, the whole set shall be replaced by the person liable, he being entitled to the damaged set.

ART. 9. All books shall be returned to the Library at such times as the Committee on the Library may appoint by reasonable notice, under a penalty of a fine of one dollar.

ART. 10. No person owing any fine or forfeiture shall receive books from the Library until the same is paid.

EXTRACT FROM THE STATUTES OF THE STATE OF MASSACHUSETTS, CHAPTER 69.

Be it enacted, &c., as follows: Whoever wilfully or maliciously writes upon, injures, defaces, tears or destroys any book, plate, picture, engraving, or statue belonging to any law, town, city or other public library, shall be punished by a fine of not less than five dollars nor more than one thousand dollars for every such offence.
